Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harmon, of Woodbine, announce the birth of a son on October 10th, in a Jacksonville hospital. He will be called Harry Walter. Mrs. Harmon will be remembered as Miss Marion Parrish, formerly of this place.

MEN'S CLASS DINE

The men's class of the Methodist Sunday school enjoyed an oyster supper at Mallard's Lodge Tuesday night.

Twenty members were present, who discussed ways and means to make a larger and better class. W. C. Cromley is teacher of this class and cordially invites men who have not enrolled in a Sunday school to join the class.

TRIBUTE OF HONOR

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Summerlin presented the Methodist church here with lovely cathedral chimes last week as a memorial to Mrs. Sommerlin's father, the late J. N. Shearouse.

The amplifying machine has two loud speakers in the steeple of the church. Before each service during the week these beautiful chimes can be heard all over town.

LAYMEN'S MEETING

Tuesday night the Middle Group of the Savannah District Laymen's meeting was held in the Methodist church here with Mr. Geary, of Savannah, leading. Mr. G. Bragg, of Springfield, led the devotion and Ben Griner, of Guyton, was one of the speakers. The theme of the meeting was "Stewardship for the Coming Year," and the object of the meeting was to promote laymen's work in the Savannah district. Rev. J. B. Hutchinson, pastor of the Methodist church here, was pastor host of the meeting.

PROCTOR-SWESEY

Of cordial interest to a wide circle of friends is the marriage of Miss Doris Luttrell Proctor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Proctor, and Wayne Serk Swezey, of St. Paul, Minnesota.

The wedding took place in the Primitive Baptist church here Saturday afternoon at six o'clock, with Rev. J. B. Hall officiating in a double ring ceremony.

The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom and his brother, Lloyd Swezey, of Chicago, who was best man. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Carolyn Proctor, who was maid of honor. The bride wore a two-piece suit of light weight periwinkle blue wool. Her accessories were brown and her corsage was an orchid.

Miss Carolyn Proctor wore a beige grey wool suit with black accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Mrs. Proctor, mother of the bride, wore a suit of lime green wool gabardine with black accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

John Proctor Jr. and John Theus

McGormick were ushers. Mrs. W. D. Lee played the nuptial music and Mrs. Cecil J. Olmstead Jr. sang.

The church was decorated with Southern smilax, pines and ferns, with floor baskets of white gladioli. On each side of the graceful arch were seven-branched candelabra that gave the candlelight wedding a lovely glow.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Proctor entertained the wedding party with an informal reception at their home. Misses Lavana Daves and Joyce Denmark served punch and wedding cake. Mrs. J. M. Williams, Mrs. C. H. Cochran and Mrs. Hamp Smith assisted with the refreshments.

After the reception the young couple took a short wedding trip before leaving for their home in Tacoma, Washington.

Georgia's School Lunch Aid Reaches $2,239,699

The state of Georgia and the U. S. Department of Agriculture have signed an agreement covering operation of the national school lunch program. It has been announced by the office of Senator Russell.

Georgia will receive $2,239,699.50 from the federal government, under the agreement, to provide low-cost lunches to school children during the present term.

Some states must match federal contribution on a dollar-for-dollar basis, but Georgia's low per capita income lessens its share of the cost. During 1944 Georgia will be required to match only 64 per cent of the federal school lunch money to which it is entitled, since the per capita income in 1944 was only 64 percent of the nation's average ($714 as against $1,117).

Senator Russell, author of the legislation, has written the basis for the federal-state money-matching plan into the national School Lunch Act. Funds for the program had to be authorized and appropriated on a year-to-year basis prior to the passage of the Russell measure by the Seventy-Ninth Congress, putting the law into effect on a permanent basis for the first time.

Now Congress will have permanent authority to appropriate any amount up to $80,000,000 a year to aid the endeavor. A total of $1,855,159.95 in federal aid will be used to purchase food, while the remaining $384,539.54 is allocated in advance to the purchase of equipment and to develop and expand the program. The state's share of the program is unfettered.

A Bulletin of Value To Georgia Landowners

Farmers and landowners in Georgia were urged this week to make use of the State Department of Forestry's timber market bulletin, issued monthly to the wood-using industries. "This is a quick route to the sale of timber," commented R. L. Mosely, management specialist for the Forestry Department, "and there are no charges whatsoever for listing the timber for sale."

The Soil Conservation Service and the Extension Service are co-operating with the Department of Forestry in the production of the timber market bulletin. For further information consult the county agent or the soil conservationist or write directly to R. L. Mosely, Department of Forestry, Court House, Macon, Ga.

SECOND GRADE SERVES REGISTER FARM BUREAU

The Register Farm Bureau is to be served a chicken supper by the second grade on Thursday night, October 17th, the plates to be served from the lunch room.

The purpose of doing this is to raise money for the second grade candidates for king and queen of the Halloween carnival. Mrs. Coy Temple, teacher, and the mothers of the children are preparing the food. All Farm Bureau members are urged to come for supper.

Miss Nita Williams, of Savannah, visited Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Williams during the week end.

Miss Sally Fordham spent last week end in Birmingham, Ala., with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sims and Shirley Sims, of Savannah, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McElveen Sunday.

The Baptist Missionary Society met at the church Monday afternoon and enjoyed a Royal Service program.

Friends of Charlie Williams are glad to know he has returned home from the veterans' hospital in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McElveen and children, of Arcola, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McElveen.

Mrs. Mary Nesmith and children, of Savannah, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bradley and Mrs. A. J. Knight last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richardson and little son, Jimmy, have moved from a visit with relatives in Miami, Fla.

The Sun Beams of the Baptist church enjoyed a program arranged by their leader, Mrs. A. J. Knight, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. McDonald, of Monroe, La., announce the birth of a son on October 14. Mrs. McDonald will be remembered as Miss Marianna Grooms.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Brown, of Savannah, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pye and Mr. and Mrs. Gorden White, of Statesboro, were guests of Mrs. W. D. Dyches Sunday.

The Girls' Auxiliary, with Mrs. Felton Lanier leader, and the Royal Ambassadors, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Lee, met at the Leefield Baptist church Saturday afternoon and enjoyed appropriate programs.

The Leefield school fittingly observed "Fire Prevention Week" last week. Attractive posters were displayed and talks each day by pupils and teachers on fire hazards helped to make the program a success. The week's work was climaxed with a chapel program arranged by Mrs. F. W. Hughes Thursday.
